

Advent: Time of Wonder With Little Ones

You've probably noticed that children have a great capacity for wonder, to be drawn into beauty and be delighted by it.

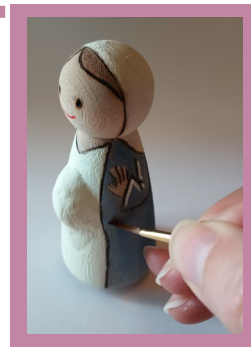

Advent is a time to give even our littlest ones something truly beautiful to wonder at: the mystery of God coming to us as a baby.

Parents of little ones, roughly six and under

Join us Wed., November 29, 5:30-7:00 p.m.

For an evening of:

- ◆ Meeting other parents (without a toddler tugging at you!)
- ◆ Learning how you can foster the gift of wonder in your children for a lifetime of joy & meaning (based on Montessori principles)
- ◆ Entering into prayerful Advent wonder yourself!
- ◆ Creating a wooden expectant Mary—which you can take home for your child's Advent
- ◆ Perusing Advent resources to inspire your own family traditions

Saint Francis of Assisi Parish, Serra Room
